

From Kuwait, the World Committee of the World Islamic Union of Scouts and Youth (WIUSY) Announces Structural Reforms:

“Strengthening Women’s and Youth Participation, Promoting Diversity and Safeguarding Against Harm, and Expanding Cooperation Across the Scout Movement”

The World Scout Committee of the World Islamic Union of Scouts and Youth (WIUSY) met in Kuwait on October 5 and 6, 2026, under the kind hosting of Dr. Abdullah Al-Turaiji, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Kuwait Scouts Association and President of the Scout Union of Arab Parliamentarians, and discussed the constitutional amendments to be presented for approval at the next WIUSY conference to be held in November 2027 in London and decided the following:

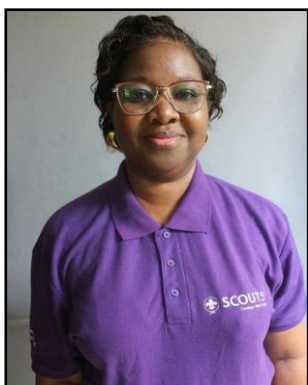

- 1) Rename to "World Islamic Union of Scouts and Guides" instead of "World Islamic Union of Scouts and Youth".
- 2) Add female members to the World Scout Committee to promote the principle of respect for social diversity.
- 3) Cooperate with the Scout Associations affiliated with the World Organization of the Scout Movement (WOSM) and/or the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGS).
- 4) Establish a subcommittee for youth under the age of 32 to involve them in WIUSY decision-making
- 5) Include the Protection from Harm Policy in the Constitution of the World Islamic Union of Scouts and Guides.
- 6) Create a regional coordinator position for each of the five Scout Regions.

- 7) Establish an International Commissioner Position in the Composition of the WIUSY's World Committee.
- 8) In anticipation of the approval by the next Conference in November 2027 in London on the promotion of the principle of social diversity, the World Scout Committee has decided to appoint three female leaders as advisors to the World Scout Committee of the World Islamic Union of Scouts and Youth, respectively:
- Scout Leader Marie Sabara from Senegal representing the African Scout Region
 - Scout Leader Wiam Saadallah from Tunisia representing the Arab Scout Region
 - Scout Leader Noor Hussein from the United Kingdom representing the European Scout Region

Awaiting the addition of the representatives of the Americas and Asia-Pacific Regions.

Mr. Wahid Labidi

WIUSY President

Dr. Zuhair Hussain Ghunaim
